

atf

animal task force

A European Public-Private Partnership

Welcome

11th ATF Seminar

18th, November 2021

University Foundation
Brussels

The Animal Task Force (since 2011)

- A European Public-Private Partnership (PPP): research, farmers & private sector
- Promoting a sustainable & competitive animal production sector in Europe;

By fostering knowledge development & innovation in Europe;

- Covering the whole animal production chain.

Going beyond the Feed vs Food competition: crops & animals together to address food and nutrition security

09:00 Welcome & introduction

Frank O'Mara, ATF

09:05 Summary of the outcomes of the ATF-EAAP LFS one-day Symposium

Tommy Boland, University College Dublin

09:15 Public policies: vision from a policy maker

Wolfgang Burtscher, European Commission – DG AGRI

09:30 How can EU livestock avoid soya feed? Vision from an NGO

Alain Peeters, WWF-Belgium

Developing the use of by-products

09:45 Vision from the feeding industry on the potentials from by-products in the EU in animal feed

Anton van den Brink, FEFAC & EFFPA

10:10 Farmers increasing forage in the diet instead of concentrates: example of grass-fed products in areas of intensive use of concentrates

Angus Nelles, farmer in the United Kingdom

10:25 Use of inedible feed in the pork industry, feed efficiency: sustainability metrics, calculating tools, including C footprint

Sandrine Espagnol, IFIP

10:40 Break

Towards mixed crop production

11:00 Dual purpose crop production across a diversity of livestock systems in the EU

Patrick Carré, Terres Inovia

11:15 Governance: good examples of crop farmers and livestock farmers working together

Tom Barry, Biogold Agri Ltd.

11:30 Panel discussion

moderated by Ana Granados & Ana Sofia Santos with Marc Cornelissen, Plants for the Future ETP

13:00 Closing